

Invitation for the 6th Master Class on Ageing in Asia

Master Class on Ageing (MCA) is a well-known international educational program for young geriatricians in the world. Since 2011, the first Asian MCA was held in Taipei, which gained great success in promoting international collaboration between Asian countries. After MCA in Taipei, Hong Kong, Beijing, Kyoto and Seoul have hosted MCA courses that were all considered successful. Up to now, over a hundred of young geriatricians in Asia have participated in this program and continued to actively work with each other in international academic activities.

The 6th MCA will be held in Taipei on March 26-28 of 2015. International Association of Gerontology and Geriatrics, Asia Pacific League of Clinical Gerontology and Geriatrics, Taiwan Association of Gerontology and Geriatrics, Taiwan Association of Integrated Care, Taipei Veterans General Hospital, and National Yang Ming University will co-host this important event.
